Communications:

- News since the last update continues to be centred primarily on the resignation of OPS

Chief Sloly as well as on the new powers granted under the Emergencies Act. In that sense, a technical briefing by Government of Canada, including a spokesperson from the RCMP, took place yesterday afternoon to help clarify roles under the Emergencies Act.

- Following confusion earlier yesterday afternoon regarding the role of the RCMP in relation to the ICC command structure, social media message reiterating the RCMP's role and collaboration with ICC partners was issued from the National Division social media accounts. Same messaging will also be used to respond to pending media enquiries on the matter.
